Things to remember:

Paperwork

Make sure you have what you need to enter the country and equally important, all the documentation for your

- Rifle
- Letter of Invitation
- Our Contact Details

Firearms and ammo

Pack in a hard case, but bring a soft case and ammo belt for during the hunt.

Pack ammo separately from the rifle, in a box that can lock but be easily accessible as you have to show this to the police when clearing your rifle. Check with your airline what their requirements are.

Money

Let your bank know that you are abroad and also increase your daily limit on your credit card.

What to bring

Ask your bank in advance for traveler's cheques, especially for large denominations.

Insurance

Remember to take out medical insurance, cancellation insurance, and insurance for personal belongings.

Medicine and prescriptions

Don't get caught without or run out while on safari.

Other important things:

- Sunscreen
- Sunglasses
- Binoculars
- Cameras and enough memory sticks, batteries, and/or charger.
- Well worn shoes
- Hat or cap
- Coat during winter months
- 3 sets of hunting clothes
